Bill Sage was happy that the sun is out. We need it.

Dave Havnen was happy to have all his bills paid. Unfortunately, he must get his eye injection in two hours.

Raychel Marcil was happy that her daughter Julia finished her first year of college. Her son Landon is playing on the Unified basketball team.

Byron Moak reported that there was a Spaghetti Dinner fundraiser at the Lansingburgh Boys and Girls Club at the same time as the Cohoes Rotary Spaghetti Dinner fundraiser.

Stacey Mackey was happy that her daughter graduated from SUNY Binghamton.

Bob Van Alstine and his wife Karen went to Falls Church, Virginia, for his grandson's 5th birthday.

Linda and Ed Tremblay's grandchildren are busy with softball games and Esports games.

Club Business

The Cohoes Rotary sold 125 spaghetti dinners. The club made a little over $1,000. Three high school students volunteered to help. The winner of the 50/50 raffle was Cathy Lemay. She won $460 and donated $60 back to the club.

Program

Stacey Mackey presented the proposed Cohoes City School District budget for next year.
