The 4-Way Test of the things we think,
say and do:

- Is it the Truth?
- Is it Fair to all concerned?
- Will it build Goodwill and Better Friendships?
- Will it be Beneficial to all concerned?

Good News/Bad News

Mike Brooks' grandsons from Buffalo are coming to visit. Mike read some words of wisdom.

Byron Moak got rained on when he left the Rotary meeting last week. Friday Byron will be going to the Otesaga restaurant in Cooperstown for his birthday celebration.

Dave Havnen has no doctor's appointments.

Ken Rose was happy to have gotten his bills paid. He determined the drive is 25 minutes from his house to the Cohoes Senior Center.

Bill Sage is making the best of the weather. Bill went to Saratoga yesterday for a baseball game and got stuck in traffic going to Saratoga Performing Arts Center. When he got to the field, the heavens opened with rain.

Bob Van Alstine's wife Karen's knee replacement surgery must be postponed until some other health issues are cleared up. Bob is scheduled to have a pacemaker put in on August 8.

Linda Tremblay's granddaughter Addison is back at Beaver Cross camp, but this week is overnight camp.

Ed Tremblay reported that the Colonie Town Band played inside the Senior Center. They had around 70 people. Ed and Linda had dinner with Lisa Robert Lewis.

Bill Sage had dinner with some former classmates. One person had a walker, three had had knee surgeries, and another had a foot operation. Everyone is getting older.

Ken Rose has three grandchildren. The oldest is now 30.

Ed Tremblay reported that Father Gregory Smith Weider passed away.

Club Business:

The Installation of Officers and Directors Picnic will be held next Wednesday, July 31 at 6:00 pm at the Tremblay residence. If the weather does not cooperate, the event will be held inside.
