The 4-Way Test of the things we think,
say and do:

- Is it the Truth?
- Is it Fair to all concerned?
- Will it build Goodwill and Better Friendships?
- Will it be Beneficial to all concerned?

Good News/Bad News

Mike Brooks read some words of wisdom.

Bob Van Alstine was happy for the good weather. Bob will be part of the leadership team at a Cursillo retreat this weekend.

Byron Moak was happy for the good weather. On this day in 1858 the Lincoln-Douglas debate was held in Illinois. Byron attended his last three Masonic picnics last weekend. Next Wednesday, the 205th Schaghticoke Fair opens. Byron attended the wake for former Rotarian and local businessman Jack Byrne.

Dave Havnen was happy for the good weather.

Ken Rose was happy that his son and daughter-in-law visited over the weekend. Ken said you know you are old when your kids have grey hair.

Bill Sage had a nice day working at SUNY Potsdam. The weather cooperated.

Linda Tremblay's daughter and her family are vacationing in California, so she and Ed are watching their dog and cat. Linda and Ed intend to participate in tonight's CNY Town Hall on Zoom.

Ed Tremblay reported that he and Linda attended a nice luncheon with some former classmates from Cohoes High School. The 13th Annual Artist Showcase was held in Cohoes over the weekend. It was a success. Forty five artists participated. Six pieces of art were sold. This Friday Linda and Ed will be attending LifePath's Travers event at Saratoga National Golf Club.

Club Business:

Linda Tremblay will email the school supply shopping list to members tonight. Cohoes Rotary will be participating in the City of Cohoes Halloween Party and Parade on Friday, October 25th, and the Holiday Hope program in December. On September 12 there will be a Senior Picnic at the Cohoes Senior Center, and on September 19 there will be a Senior Picnic at the Watervliet Senior Center. Volunteers are needed. If you can help at either event, let Ed Tremblay know. Sponsorship opportunities are also available for both events.
